DIRECTOR OF THE MINT

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY UNITED STATES MINT WASHINGTON, DC 20220

From now until February 3, 1995, you can take advantage of an unprecedented offer to subscribe to limited-edition Olympic coin sets commemorating the Atlanta Centennial Olympic Games.

However, this is a one-time-only opportunity.

Dear Mint Customer:

If any occasion deserves to be commemorated, it is the upcoming centennial celebration of the Modern Olympic Games, which will be held in the United States in Atlanta, Georgia during the summer of 1996.

The United States Mint is proud to announce that it will honor this historic Olympic event with unique gold, silver and cupro-nickel coin sets. As a valued Mint customer, you may want to take advantage of this one-time-only opportunity to acquire these subscription sets, especially since the 32- and 16-coin sets will be issued in strictly limited quantities and at prices lower than pre-issue pricing.

The 32-coin set, limited to just 10,000 worldwide, is the ultimate collection. It includes all the coins minted to commemorate the Atlanta Centennial Olympic Games in both proof and uncirculated condition. This is the first time the Mint has ever offered a set of this magnitude. The 16-coin proof set, limited to 20,000, and the 8-coin silver dollar proof set are equally impressive. All three sets are presented in beautiful display cases designed to hold your collection for years to come.

These are the first Olympic commemorative coin subscription sets ever offered by the Mint. This series of collectibles is an extremely attractive, convenient and affordable purchase because, for the first time ever, the Mint will accept quarterly installment payments via credit card.

This special subscription offer will not be repeated, so I urge you to place your order for these coins of the Atlanta Centennial Olympic Games before February 3. After this date, these Olympic coins will be available at regular prices through future mailings as traditional Mint offerings of individual coins and various packaged sets.

If you have any questions or need further information, please call our Customer Service Center at 301-436-7400 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm ET, Monday through Friday.

Cordially,
